MR. J. ALFRED NOVELLO'S Musical Circular for March, 1854.

It may be remembered that nearly the whole of the Sacred Music which had formerly formed part of the Catalogue of Mr. Preston, was purchased for the London Sacred Music Warehouse, when his successors, Messrs. Coventry and Hollier, sold off their plates and copyrights.

Many of these, such as the Services and Anthems by Dr. Whitfield Clarke, Corfe, and others, had been printed in the older fashion, with only a figured bass, and without a separate Organ part, thereby limiting the usefulness of music, which, from its simplicity and absence of pretension, was otherwise very welcome to young choirs. Some progress has been made in re-engraving some of these in Score, with the separate Organ part; and there are now nearly ready, the

Vol. 1. CLARKE. SERVICES & ANTHEMS, with Organ part by Vincent Novello. Sewed 15s.

„ 2. ——— In a forward state. - - - - - „ 15s.

„ 3. ——— Ditto - - - - - „ 15s.

„ 4. ——— Already published - - - - - „ 15s.

* * It is suggested that the four vols. would be better in future bound two in one, and so form only two vols., in which form they will be sold bound in whole cloth, price 30s. each Vol.

It is requested that Subscribers will be so good as send their names as early as convenient to 69, Dean Street, that from the number it may be decided whether the re-engraving of these simple works is generally desired, and further works be prepared.

THE SERVICES and ANTHEMS, by JOSEPH CORFE, are also being engraved in the same manner: the Organ Part by Mr. Josiah Pitman. The price of this Volume will be duly announced.

There has just been completed the Volume, by DR. NARES, known as his TWENTY ANTHEMS. It is expected these will be ready, bound in whole cloth, early in April; price 25s. The Vocal Score of each of these Anthems may be purchased singly (see separate list), and the Separate Vocal Parts are already completed to the more popular Anthems.

Separate Vocal Parts have been completed to the Collection of Services by Dr. Rimbault. Each Service can be purchased singly. The List of the Contents of this useful Volume will be found at page 86, No. 2 Catalogue. Similar Separate Parts have lately been completed to Dr. Smith's (of Dublin) Popular Services; and those for the Collection made by the Rev. Sir Frederick Ouseley, Bart.; and the Vocal Parts to his own compositions only require his final revision.

Referring to the last Circular, J. Alfred Novello cannot refrain from expressing his thanks for the hearty and general expressions of goodwill towards his Original Octavo Edition of Cheap Oratorios. It is intended to prepare the same scarlet bindings for all the other Oratorios in the series, but the prices (with the four exceptions) will remain as heretofore.

69, Dean Street, Soho.

No one, who, in instructing children in music, has employed both rounds and harmonized airs, can doubt which style is more easily taught; and even where there is no experience to guide, reason alone can determine the matter.

BOYCE'S COLLECTION OF CATHEDRAL MUSIC.

The Precentors of Cathedrals, and the Directors of Choirs in "Churches where they sing," are respectfully informed that Dr. Boyce's Work, which has long been considered the most complete and useful collection of English Church Music, is now published in a variety of forms to suit every requirement. The contents and the succession of pieces accord precisely with the original copy, as published by Dr. Boyce, so that Cathedral Choirs, &c., already in possession of copies, may increase their number, in full confidence of the new ones corresponding in every respect. The new editions may be specified as follows, viz. :—

I.—The VOCAL SCORE has been reprinted, in its integrity, from Boyce; to which a separate Accompaniment for the Organ has been added under each score by VINCENT NOVELLO. In 3 Vols., bound in whole cloth, 42s. each.

II.—The SEPARATE VOCAL PARTS for each of the four voices—Treble, Alto, Tenor, and Bass—are printed so that one set may serve for eight or twelve persons. The economy of these Parts will be readily appreciated for the use of Choirs, or where numerous singers have to be supplied with copies. Price of each Vocal Part, bound in whole cloth, 25s.

III.—The SEPARATE ORGAN PART (in 2 Vols., price 21s. each), with the words in full between the Treble and Bass staff, will be found useful to those who wish these compositions as Organ Voluntaries, or for those who already possess the old Vocal Score, and to whom playing from score is inconvenient.

It is believed that in many Cathedrals the habit still prevails of making Manuscript Parts from the Vocal Scores; but this must arise from its not being known that good printed copies can now be purchased at less cost than the blank paper to make these manuscripts upon; or, in other words, it requires 3s. 6d. worth of blank paper to contain 3s. worth of printed music at the present reduced prices.

* * Each Service or Anthem may be had separately from this work, either in Score or separate Vocal Parts (Catalogues postage free for two stamps).

J. Alfred Novello, London and New York.

Now publishing, under the sanction of the Ecclesiological Society,
I.—A HYMNAL NOTED: or translations of the Ancient Hymns of the Church, set to their proper melodies.—Part I, price 2s. 6d.

II.—ACCOMPANYING HARMONIES TO THE HYMNAL NOTED.—Part I, price 6s. 6d.

III.—THE WORDS OF THE HYMNAL, in a separate form, price 6d.

IV.—THE WORDS OF THE HYMNAL, in a cheap form, price 2d. (or 13s. 4d. per 100 for distribution.)

THE HYMNAL NOTED.—The increased attention paid of late years to the music of the Church has necessarily led to inquiry into the best mode of reviving the use of metrical Hymns; and where the Prayer Book Psalter, pointed by authority, is sung (as it always should be), the ordinary metrical versions of the Psalms are no longer found to satisfy either the religious wants or the musical tastes of Christians. To supply the want universally felt, and very generally acknowledged, the Ecclesiological Society have laboured with great care, for some time past, to procure good translations of the Hymns which have been written by such holy men as S. Hilary, S. Ambrose, Prudentius, Sedulius, S. Ennodius, and S. Gregory, in the earlier ages of the Church; by Fortunatus, the Venerable Bede, S. Bernard, Hildebert, S. Thomas Aquinas, S. Notker, Godscalcus, and Adam of S. Victor, in mediæval times; and by Santolius Victorinus, since the revival of classical learning.

From these authors are derived the original metrical Hymns which the whole Western Church incorporated into her liturgy. The Reformers of the English Church wished, but were unable, to translate them; Archbishop Cranmer desired that as his "English verses wanted the grace and faculty which he could wish they had," the king "would cause some other to do them into more pleasant English and phrase."

The first part of a Hymnal, intended to supply from these proper sources an orderly course of Hymns for the Christian year, has now for some time been found of eminent service in those Churches where it has been used; and a second part, to complete the work, is just ready for publication.

The music is that to which, with slight variations, these Hymns have been universally sung; it is taken principally from ancient records of the English use, now extant in the British Museum. These melodies are eminently adapted for Congregational use, and have been proved to answer better on the whole than more modern tunes. The harmonies are composed on the model of the great Harmonists of the best periods of Church Music.

SIR JOHN HAWKINS'S GENERAL HISTORY OF THE SCIENCE AND PRACTICE OF MUSIC. Price 35s., bound in Two Volumes. Supplementary Volume of Portraits, 14s., in paper covers; 16s., bound in cloth.

IN the present age, when public attention is so extensively directed towards the study and practice of Music, it has been thought that a new edition of SIR JOHN HAWKINS'S valuable HISTORY OF MUSIC would prove peculiarly acceptable, as being by far the best history of the art extant. It was formerly a very scarce and expensive book, but the present price, 35s. bound in two volumes, places it within the reach of both amateur and professional musicians. The large subject of a History of Music, embracing heterogeneous matter, and the result of wide research, makes it a storehouse to which a definite clue is required to give ready access. This will be found in the new and compendious Indexes, which have been carefully compiled, and added to the present edition. The whole matter occupies more than 1000 large pages of close print, with more than 200 wood-cuts, and provides the material for many a long winter evening's amusement by their perusal.
